

Gary E. Horblitt D.D.S.

Education:

- Case Western Reserve University BA 1977 (Senior year in Absentia)
- Northwestern University Dental School. D.D. S. 1980
- Park City Hospital Bridgeport CT. Certificate in General Practice residency 1981
- Eye and Ear Hospital of Pittsburgh and the University of Pittsburgh Certificate in Maxillofacial Prosthodontics 1984

Hospital Appointments:

- Park City Hospital Bridgeport CT 1984-1990
- Yale New Haven Hospital New Haven CT 1985-present

Teaching experience:

- Park City Hospital Bridgeport CT 1984-1990 Clinical Instructor in the General Practice Residency Program
- Yale New Haven Hospital Assistant Professor of Surgery 1985-present. Instructor in the General Practice Residency Program. Section Chief of Prosthodontics
- Nobelpharma and NobelBiocare professorship 1986-2001. Developed and implemented 1 day, 2 day certification courses, Laboratory Certification courses, and Mini-residencies for the largest dental implant company at the time. Presented at many national and international symposiums during this period of time.
- Neoss professorship 2001-2010. Presented at national and international symposiums and local study groups over this time.

Work experience:

- Private practice limited to Oral and Maxillofacial Prosthodontics in Fairfield Ct from 1984-present.